ANNA HIGH SCHOOL CREED

I believe in Anna High School as an educational institution symbolizing the ideals of Americanism.

I believe in the efficiency of its faculty, who are perpetuating higher education in every branch of study.

I believe in the student body, who as future citizens, shall have qualities to assume the responsibilities of a great nation.

I believe in her ideals and her future growth.

I do most firmly believe this without limit or restriction.

Dedication

We, the class of 1952, dedicate this annual to all former students of this school who are now enrolled in the service of our country.

They are fighting to preserve and uphold the principles of democracy upon which our great country is founded.

ADMINISTRATION

SUPERINTENDENT

CHARLES E. STEWART

It is said that character is like the foundation of a house--it is beneath the surface. By the same token, beneath the surface of the covers of the publication will be found the character of the Annual and of the student body producing it. Congratulations upon the character portrayed.

CLASS HISTORY

In September of 1943 we entered Anna High School, as freshman. During this year we had a total of 44 members, with 8 from Kettlersville and 9 from McCartyville. Our class sponsor was Mr. M. D. Hall. In October we were initiated and became full-fledged members of Anna High.

Officers chosen for our first year in High School were: President, Bill Sweitzer; Vice President, John Raterman; Secretary, Mary Kathryn Billing; Treasurer Charles Elsass; and Student Council, Helen Heath and Ronald Zook.

Our Freshman assembly was in the form of a Minstrel. Special acts were done by members of the class.

On December 17, we were highly honored by having Myrtle Seigle as Homecoming Queen. She chose as her escort Bob Naseman.

We were sorry to lose one of our classmates, Mary Kathryn Billing, who was killed in an auto accident March 5, 1949.

We returned in 1949 with a total enrollment of 36 members. Our sponsor was Mr. C. A. Winegardner. After the class was organized the following officers were chosen: President, David Counts; Vice President, Bob Inderrieden; Secretary, Caroline Gritzmaker; Treasurer, Janet Soelmann; Student Council, Neoma Petrosky and John Boyer.

On March 25, we gave our class assembly. We opened the program with several popular songs, sung by the class. After the the play, "Bobby Sox" was given.

On January 21, we held our annual Homecoming with four members of our class taking part. They were: Janet Soelmann, Queen; Bob Naseman, her escort; Myrtle Seigle, retiring Queen, and John Boyer her escort.

Several parties were enjoyed this year which were given by the class.

When we re-entered school in September, 1950. It hardly seemed possible that we were Juniors already. We immediately elected class officers, as there were some pretty big events to take place this year. Our officers were: President, Charles Elsass; Vice President, Bob Naseman; Secretary, Neoma Petrosky; Treasurer Myrtle Seigle; Student Council, Joan Fogt and Bob Westerbeck. Our sponsor was Mr. Paul Schilling.

A Junior Play, "Brides to Burn," was chosen, and on December 15 and 29 was given by the two separate casts. The characters were:

Letitia Gundy	Ann Sayre, Joan Kah
Gilroy Garfield Gundy	Bob Naseman, Charles Elsass
Clarice Borland	Julia Schilling, Nancy Boyer
Trudi Borland	Janet Soelmann, Myrtle Seigle
Fats Fulton	Ronald Zook, Ernest Heintz
Hap Hazard	Bob Westerbeck, Wilbur Wiley
Sue Prentis	Caroline Gritzmaker, Mildred Liess
Hotchkiss	John Raterman, Leo Thaman
Sapolia Pipp	Martha Fogt, Mary Grilliot
Madame Gasparillia	Neoma Petrosky, Joan Fogt
Dr. Jonesby	Louis Christman, Clifford Grieves

The annual Homecoming Game was held on December 15. Janet Soelmann, the retiring queen, graciously presented her crown to another member of our class, Neoma Petrosky. They chose as their escorts Tommy Kuck and Bob Boyer, respectively.

May 22 was the day all juniors and seniors had looked forward to, the Junior-Senior Prom. This was a very wonderful affair which took quite a lot of work on the Junior's part, but we were proud of the results.

As May rolled by we completed another year. But we could look forward to coming back in September as "Dignified Seniors".

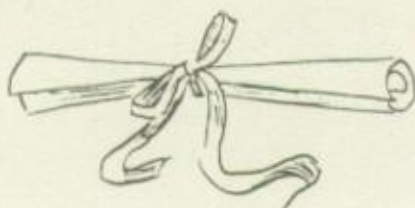

In September we started our senior, and the final year of our high school career. Our class consisted of 29 pupils, and our sponsor was Mr. Luther E. Fogt.

Our class officers chosen were: President, Bob Naseman; Vice President John Raterman; Secretary, Joan Kah; Treasurer, Julia Schilling; Student Council, Myrtle Seigle and Charles Elsass.

The Homecoming Game was held January 18. Again the queen was chosen from our Senior Class. Irva Hawkins, Queen, chose as her escort Bob Westerbeck, and retiring Queen, Neoma, chose Bob Naseman as her escort.

On May 8 we gave the Senior Play. We enjoyed the Junior-Senior Prom which was given in our honor.

On May 25 Baccalaureate was held, and on May 26 we received our diplomas at Commencement. Our high school career was ended, but we knew we would never forget Anna High.

PROPHECY

Well, having worked for 15 years, we finally got enough dough together to take our long-awaited trip. Little did we know the outcome. Where to go? Natch, to that ever-growing city of Anna! Having saved and saved, we decided to splurge this once and so chartered the new 1970 Fly-by-Sky plane, since it was the very latest!! For those in the dark, it was just constructed by Neoma Petrosky, that famous scientific inventor. (Her schemes were bound to get her somewhere).

Packed and all ready, we boarded early in order to chat with the pilot and co-pilot. (Ahemm). They turned out to be Wilbur Wiley and Leo Thaman, (always up in the air over something.) Seeing this, we nearly decided to go by train but decided to take the risk. And so----we were off!

So shortly, we saw a brilliant looking thing sitting alone and decided to keep her company. What a shock! It was Ann Sayre, superintendent of the new "Westerbeck School of Music", started by Robert Westerbeck, (his yelling made him famous!!) Back to Ann, she had just come from Washington where she, always interested in the government, had had a conference with the Congressmen, Harold Elsass, and Ernie Heintz about her new Sayre Theory, which was supposed to be as good as Einstein's. Having chatted awhile, we rang for the hostesses, who turned out to be Bonnie Flinn and Mildred Leiss. They informed us that we were just coming into Anna, so we looked out, and --- oh --- what a metropolis! It sure had grown.

Having landed, (safely too!!) we decided to rest up awhile. So we tried to find a nice hotel, and finally decided to plant ourselves at the best, which was the "Inderriden Inn" run by Robert Inderrieden. It was simply teeming with celebrities, who were welcoming Dave Counts home from his hunting expedition in the under growths of Africa. As we were trying to enter, we noticed bobby soxers oohing and aahing and decided to investigate. Were we ever surprised! In the midst of them was John Boyer! Yes, he made the movies! His manager, Howard Roediger, was there also, trying in vain, to quiet the crowd. We, always giddy, got Mr. Boyer's autograph and stumbled on.

After shining up, we sat down to rest awhile (Ooh, our dogs!!) Then we noticed a distinguished looking man peering mysteriously at different people. Being inquisitive, we asked him for his reason for doing such and found out he was Louis Christman, a private hotel detective from the "Sneaky Detective Agency," which wasn't doing too good, because their best detective, Mary Hulsmeyer, had run off to get married and they couldn't find anyone good enough to replace her.

While reading that world famous newspaper, the Grieves Gazette, published by Clifford Grieves, the famous editor, we were startled to see the headlines which informed us that Caroline Gritzmaker was confined to the hospital which was built by the great architect, Frank Counts. Caroline was suffering from shock after trying to land a space ship on Mars. Her assistant, Mary Grilliot was carrying out her plans by taking the new Gritzmaker to Venus.

Part of our sight seeing tour took us to the Hawkin's Hospital, financed by Irva Hawkins who became a millionaire overnight with her new super mud pack, which keeps you looking young forever. Venturing inside we were swept away by the janitor sweeping the lobby, and low and behold there was Ronald Zook working himself to the bone for his wife and children at home. There we found Joan Kah serving as superintendent of nurses. After a short visit with Caroline we continued our tour. The next stop was at the monument, which was erected in honor of Chuck Elsass, for his faithful baby sitting service that he rendered to the city. We were privileged in hearing one of Julia Schilling's campaign speeches with which she hopes to gain the title of President of the Talkers Association. In the evening we attended the world premiere of "The Seigle Story," portraying the life of Myrtle Seigle, the first woman All-American. We chatted briefly with Robert Naseman, who is now the private hair dresser of Janet Soelmann, since she gained millions with her chemical that changes the gold in fish to variegated colors.

Stepping on to the street, we were approached by John Raterman patiently waiting to take us to Martha's Blue Room in his Raterman Rover, the baby size Crosby convertible. The Blue Room, Anna's most prominent restaurant, is owned and operated by Martha Fogt, doing very nicely as the hostess of this vast business.

With the satisfaction that the class of '52" has been very successful in its post-graduate work and life, we snuggled down in our bed thinking our long-awaited trip had been worth while.

I, Irva Hawkins, bequeath my ability to resist all men to Martha Ell.

I, Bob Inderrieden, bequeath my athletic ability to Loren Zimpher.

Remember the time:

in the first grade when Judy got sent out into the hall?
in the second grade when we raised moths and butterflies?
in the third grade when we sent a worm to Louisiana and back?
in the fourth grade when we brought our lunches to school?
in the fifth grade when John had to straighten the teacher's stocking seam?
in the sixth grade when anyone who talked got slapped?
in the seventh grade when we finally entered Junior Hi?
in the eighth grade when we almost won the Junior Championship?
in the ninth grade when we staggered through Initiation?
in the tenth grade when we had some picnics at Judy's house?
in the eleventh grade when we returned the Chemistry equipment to the people it belonged to?
in the twelfth grade when we reversed the home room?

The Rockets has a very successful season in baseball. We boast a 6-1 record which was the best in the county, thus we gained top honors in baseball. Coach Turner who just came to our school this year did a very good job of piloting the team thru a successful year. Next spring the team will participate in the district tourney at Springfield.

The Rockets Basketball team had a very successful season of play. They won eleven out of sixteen games. The League championship for the season is also one of the honors held by the team. In the league Anna won six and lost only to Houston. The varsity club will face off against Botkins in our first game of the tournament.

The Reserve team did very well this season. They also turned in a record of eleven victories and five losses. They won the county reserve league title with a total of seven victories and no losses. This entitles them to a handsome trophy.

In the tourney scuffle the Rockets came out second best in the runners-up position. In the first game we won from Botkins by a one point margin 55-54. They staged a last quarter spurge which almost proved fatal. In the next game we subdued Jackson Center by the score of 61-51. Next we played Houston for the championship. We were defeated 39-44; thus Houston became the tourney champs.

Due to the defeat by Houston we now played Perry for runners-up. We won this game 58-51.

The Rockets received four of the five trophies awarded, so they need not feel too bad.

Now we have drawn to play Concord in the District tournament. They are the champs from Champaign County.

The personal scoring records for the varsity are as follows: Bob Inderrieden-270, Loren Zimpfer-177, Kenneth Curtis-169, John Boyer-153, Chuck Elsass-151, Bob Naseman-54, Bob Westerbeck-49, Dave Counts-30.

THE QUEEN AND HER COURT

TWO VIEWS OF THE GRAND MARCH

THE ROYAL COUPLE

HEMMERT OIL AND FUEL
Botkins, Ohio

HOME COMING

Friday night, January 18, Perry came to battle with us. Between the halves of the varsity game, the band played special numbers and a square dance was presented by the majorettes and cheerleaders.

After the game, special numbers were given to entertain the audience. Those participating were: Shirley Bell, Ruth Schroer, LaVerta Buehler, Janet Egbert, Mary Ell, Fay Ludwig, and Paul Richardson.

The big event of the evening then took place, the crowning of the queen. Neoma Petrosky, the retiring queen, presented her crown, to Irva Hawkins, her beautiful successor, whose royal escort was Bob Westerbeck. Her royal attendants were: Hazel Wrigley, Judy Sharp, Hannah Egbert, Carol Watercutter and Lois Schmidt. They chose for their escorts: Daniel Fogt, Dale Egbert, Don Swartz, Ronald Jacoby, Roland Schultz, and the retiring queen's escort was Bob Naseman.

Susan Boyer and Joy Kah were flower girls.

The Grand March was led by the queen and her escort with the spectators invited to join the march.
